

SEO CMS Global™ offers complete meta content management. Meta information can be either created dynamically based on the website content or controlled by the user. Meta description and meta keywords are important elements of any website and should follow specific usage guidelines to be considered relevant. Our software allows for easy management of meta for your entire website and additional meta for each page of your website which allows for a broader range of keywords and key phrases to be effectively used.